

Do not weaken NJ Do Not Call program. I have an elderly father and have personally witnessed the nightmare created by aggressive, unsolicited telemarketers. They seek to confuse and mislead him in order to make a profit. We need the most stringent programs to protect those who clearly want such protection. Capitalism should not trump human decency.